"Tremendous thanks to STUDENTathleteWorld and Richie Schueler for all the guidance, expertise and assistance as we navigated through the recruitment process. Richie was extremely personable and helpful to our daughter and family by answering all our questions, providing direction, offering support, as well as taking the time to meet with our family, talk on the phone, and reply promptly to all communication. Thanks again for helping our daughter achieve her goal of playing lacrosse in college. We wish you the best!" -Kathy and Mark Zahn

Spencer Jenkins – Baseball

"The STUDENTathleteWorld service is really good, the specific personal involvement of Carey Crain was truly phenomenal. Because of COVID, it would have been very hard to find the right fit. Mr. Crain made it easy. I would be happy to refer all my friends to SaW."

Bryan Reyes – Baseball
Eastlake High School (California)

College/University committed to	Lewis-Clark State College
Starting price per year (tuition, room, board, fees)	$24,160
Athletic scholarship dollars per year	$17,760
Bottom line price per year (tuition, room, board, fees)	$6,400
4-year savings	$71,040

"STUDENTathleteWorld has been outstanding. I recommend it to all my friends because SaW helps you acquire your dream college. Louis Birch was a lot of help and was always there when you needed him."

Landn Kauk – Baseball
Highland High School (California)

College/University committed to	Vanguard University
Starting price per year (tuition, room, board, fees)	$44,500
Academic scholarship dollars per year	$38,000
Bottom line price per year (tuition, room, board, fees)	$6,500
4-year savings	$152,000

"STUDENTathleteWorld was extremely effective in finding me a program that was a great fit for me and my family! Before getting involved with STUDENTathleteWorld I had no college coaches talking to me. Within a few weeks, I had been contacted by multiple coaches that were interested in me playing for them next year! I was contacted by over 30 coaches before making my commitment. Carey Crain was my recruiter and he did a great job helping get my name out to coaches! Thank you Carey and STUDENTathleteWorld for all you did for me and my family!"

Alex Eliopulos – Baseball
La Jolla High School (California)

College/University committed to	Lewis-Clark State College
Starting price per year (tuition, room, board, fees)	$24,236
Athletic scholarship dollars per year	$20,000
Bottom line price per year (tuition, room, board, fees)	$4,236
4-year savings	$80,000

"And after learning what Louis could offer to promote Alex, I hired him. Within a few days he had Alex's SaW profile up and running and e-mailed the profile to at least 50 coaches with a strong recommendation to take a look at Alex. Within a few hours of e-mailing the profile, Louis received several substantive responses. All but one coach was genuinely interested in Alex and one coach, Jeremiah Robbins of Lewis Clark State College (the #2 ranked NAIA team in the nation) in Idaho wrote three words to Louis: "I'll take him." After further e-mail correspondence, some additional video prepared by Louis after personally working Alex out, a couple of phone calls, and a campus visit, Alex received a substantial scholarship offer and signed a Letter of Intent to attend college and play baseball at Lewis-Clark State College! But not before Alex received a substantial scholarship offer from a Division 2 baseball program that he passed on. We are convinced that Louis Birch's efforts, contacts and outstanding reputation with many, many baseball coaches are the reasons that Alex was given serious consideration by several coaches, received two substantial scholarship offers in less than three weeks time! Thank you Louis!" –Martin Eliopulos

Nolan Proffitt – Baseball
Liberty High School (California)

College/University committed to	San Diego Christian College

"I would not be where I am today without the help of my representative – Carey Crain – and the recruiting program at SaW. I've always been a good student and athlete, but I thought my chances of being recruited might have passed me by because I was ill my junior year and missed my entire baseball season. Fortunately, I had a great senior season, and my representative Coach Crain convinced me with that with a video I still could get some college help. I think he and I were equally as surprised and happy when my video went live. Within two days, I had 27 coaches calling me – many on the first day! In total, I had at least 36 schools reach out to me as a result of my video. I have found the perfect school for me academically and athletically, and I can't wait to start this year. I never even would have known about the school I chose without Coach Crain's assistance!" -Nolan Proffitt, Liberty High School (California)

"We cannot thank Lou Birch and SaW for all the help he gave us during the recruiting process. He was knowledgeable, honest and was our son's biggest advocate. He was very open and realistic about different colleges and where our son would fit in from an athletic and academic standpoint. Lou was a great advisor when it came to selecting a college that provided the best athletic and academic fit for our son and helped him be awarded a very large scholarship offer that was unbelievable." -Shannon Shebloski

"SaW was very effective. They definitely created the most opportunities; far more than Showcases, etc. Lou Birch did a great job of generating interest. Lou's list of contacts was very beneficial. Lou is always positive and does a great job of educating you on your options at D1, D2, D3, NAIA. He always pointed out opportunities at all levels. We would recommend SaW to all prospective athletes." -Matt Abruzzo

"Thank you SaW and thank you Mr. Birch for everything you have done to help me fulfill my lifelong dream to play college baseball. As a potential Canadian Student Athlete, attempting to navigate the complex world of searching for a quality school and baseball program in the United States can be a daunting task. Louis Birch, our SaW Representative, was referred to us by another Canadian baseball player who was a part of the SaW program last year. Mr. Birch was amazing and did an amazing job for me and my family. He took the time to get to know me and understand my specific needs. He was always very supportive, encouraging, informative, and generous with his time. I felt that he worked tirelessly on my behalf with many potential schools in an effort to help me fulfill my dream of going to College and playing baseball. He followed through on everything he said he was going to do to help me reach my goal. Needless to say, Mr. Birch succeeded in making my dream a reality. Can't say enough good things about the SaW program and the service Mr. Birch provided. We will not hesitate recommending him to our Canadian baseball friends." -Ethan Kano McGregor

"SaW played a key role for our son over the past six months. We can't say enough about our representative, Louis Birch, and the support he gave us. He believed in our son 100% and went above and beyond our expectations to introduce him to a wide variety of U.S. colleges. The exposure was far beyond anything we could have made happen by ourselves and Lou is obviously very well respected in the field. He also helped create a video which was pivotal in helping our son attract the attention of interested colleges. Lou was extremely professional and he was always quick to respond to any questions we had. We never had to wait more than a few hours for an email or phone response. He was also very flexible; it took our family a while to figure out what the best fit would be for a college experience (ie. 2 yr. vs. 4 yr., location) and Lou was very patient and supportive of us as we worked through this. He never gave up – he persevered and was encouraging and enthusiastic through the whole process. Even after our son committed to an excellent college, Lou continued to keep in touch with us. He is a genuine relationship builder. Thanks so much for all your support!" -Ian Watson

"Choosing the correct college is an art. So many things to learn and know it's almost impossible. SaW answered a lot of the questions, and provided information quickly when needed. Their website offered information to help narrow decisions on schools so as not to take such a broad approach. We were not getting much attention before enrolling. After Adam's profile went up on the website, literally within 45 minutes we had emails from 12 different schools. Then as time went forward, as they received requests from coaches, they forwarded those to us also in case we were interested. NO way could we have ever made contact to that many schools in the short period of time we did, without their help" -Jon Loewer

"STUDENTathleteWorld did a great job representing me. Because I limited my choices to close to home, major in nursing and playing a libero in volleyball (which hardly ever gets scholarshipped), I didn't have a whole lot of options. SaW worked hard in the beginning to get my video done and uploaded and my information was online very quickly. We emailed Tim with any questions that we had and he always got right back to us. We didn't understand the recruiting process until we got involved with SaW. I don't think I would have had the exposure needed to get the attention that I did. I was contacted by over 100 colleges that saw my profile on their website! Thank you STUDENTathleteWorld and Tim Ryerson!" -Jillian Born

"I thought it was a great service especially for never going through the process before. You feel like a deer in the headlights and it so nice to be able to talk to someone that knows exactly how the process works. I think the way the e-mails are sent are great. I think anything to help narrow the search somehow is helpful as decision start getting closer especially. Of course, with anything I think the more student-athlete can build a rapport with universities and colleges the more helpful that will be to the student. I would encourage any family to get help with this process as early as 9th grade. This will give you the best benefit of the services SaW provides. Thanks!" -Carla Hoots

"STUDENTathleteWorld is a great program. Our son was contacted by schools that we would have never thought to reach out to. We visited a few of those schools and really liked them. Our son received offers from 3 of them! Tim Ryerson worked closely with us and was a tremendous help in getting our son's profile and video in the hands of the correct people. Within a month's time our son had 7 offers to play baseball in Div. I, II, III and NAIA. I would recommend this program to anyone. Tim Ryerson knows what he is doing and how to help your athlete get recruited." –Elisha Manuel

"My SaW representative Jamie Kachmarik was the reason I actually chose Bluffton to play Basketball. I was all set to commit to another Div. III, when Jamie emailed my updated video of my senior season to the Bluffton coaches and let them know I would be playing in the area and I was someone they needed to look at. Just from that contact, the Bluffton assistant Coach came to watch my sectional tournament game from there they contacted me about a visit, I ended up loving the campus and what Bluffton had to offer. I am very excited to be able continue playing basketball and if it wasn't for my SaW Representative sending out that one email I would not be heading off to Bluffton." –Lee Holderman

"The recruiting process through SaW was a great experience for me and my family. Working with Brad Clark meant I always had someone available to answer my questions. With SaW sending out my profile to over 1,000 schools for me, it took so much of the pressure off me and my family in making college contacts. I enjoyed the recruiting process, getting messages from all the colleges, and I truly want to thank Brad and SaW for being a part of my success." – Ashley Buchholz

Just wanted to let you know how much appreciation my family has for Mr. Davis as my daughter's recruiter and as a great friendship built from this adventure. His compassion for all sports and professionalism for the recruiting is astronomical, he was always informative in every aspect and always was a phone call or email away. As you all know my daughter signed to Phoenix College as a pitcher and we are so proud, wanted to thank STUDENTathleteWorld for job well done! Especially THOMAS C DAVIS. I would recommend him to anybody with the utmost honor!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! THANK YOU SO MUCH!!!!!!!!!!

Tremendous thanks to STUDENTathleteWorld and Richie Schueler for all the guidance, expertise and assistance as we navigated through the recruitment process. Richie was extremely personable and helpful to our daughter and family by answering all our questions, providing direction, offering support, as well as taking the time to meet with our family, talk on the phone, and reply promptly to all communication. Thanks again for helping our daughter achieve her goal of playing lacrosse in college. We wish you the best! [Note: Danielle

Let me tell you how skeptical I was about hiring an athletics advisor especially since my son was already being recruited by so many colleges. I was happy to have [STUDENTathleteWorld Representative] Louis Birch in my corner we were getting so many calls with offers of this and that, they would say we will give you this percentage or that percentage, what does that all mean? I didn't know what questions to ask or I thought of questions after I got off the phone, the coaches come at you with so much information and promises it's really overwhelming. So we called Louis made a deal and started referring all the schools to him, we let Louis know what we were interested in what we could afford to spend going to college and he would get back to us with every few days sometimes a few times a day depending on what he was working on for us that day, he would never leave us hanging always got back with any of our concerns. No one works harder than Louis, I know this not just from the results but because I asked the coaches what kind of job he was doing for my son and they all said Louis was a tough negotiator. All that being said Louis got us a great deal one we can all live with and Freddy's going to play ball and the next level at a great baseball school. When you come across such a great guy who wants what's best for you kid it's hard not to pay it forward, so we did and referred our friends and too no surprise their sons are getting committed as well. Louis is a great judge of talent and wont mislead you he'll get you into a school that wants you period. [Note: Fred committed to Fresno State University]
Chris Schlichtholz, Father of Fred Schlichtholz, Coronado High School (California)

The STUDENTathleteWorld service is really good, the specific personal involvement of Carey Crain was truly phenomenal. Because of COVID, it would have been very hard to find the right fit. Mr Crain made it easy. I would be happy to refer all my friends to SaW. [Note: Spencer committed to Arizona Christian University]

STUDENTathleteWorld has been outstanding. I recommend it to all my friends because SaW helps you acquire your dream college. Louis Birch was a lot of help and was always there when you needed him. [NOTE: Bryan committed to Lewis and Clark State College]

Lou, you've done us a great service and you truly are a wonderful person to not only work with but just to talk to as a human being. In a 'business' that is not at all easy to navigate, you made our lives simple and worked to get us what we wanted - an opportunity to grow not just in academics and baseball but also in Christianity which is of vast importance to us. It's a win-win for all of us. [NOTE: Hudson committed to Baylor University]

Frank Pearson, Father of Hudson Pearson, Eastlake High School (California)

We thought we were doing all the right things in the recruiting process but were not having any luck. We even signed up with another national recruiting agency at the beginning of his junior year, but they just seemed to sit back and wait for us to initiate all the work, and nothing happened. I realized that I had to get smarter, step back, and figure out what was going on. I heard about [STUDENTathleteWorld Representative] Louis Birch from a friend and when I met him I immediately knew that my son was in good hands. Within a day of enrolling, we had more activity than I could ever have imagined. Within a week we five calls and had a coach come out specifically to see my son play. His video was being seen all over the country by the right level coaches. Every one of them was legitimately interested in my son. After a very painful process, we found the fit we were looking for, a fantastic academic school with a strong baseball tradition where he will have a good chance of playing. There is no way we would have arrived where we are without STUDENTathleteWorld. I just don't have the time, expertise, systemic knowledge, objective view of my son, or access to coaches to pull all of this off. [Note: James committed to Clairemont-Mudd-Scripps]
James L'Esperance, Father of James L'Esperance, Eastlake High School (California)

Working with Lou Birch was awesome. Without his efforts I would have kept stumbling at square one. Thanks again Lou for all your hard work. [NOTE: Bailey committed to Bellevue University]

Brock Calvillo, Frontier High School (California)

STUDENTathleteWorld was extremely effective in finding me a program that was a great fit for me and my family! Before getting involved with STUDENTathleteWorld I had no college coaches talking to me. Within a few weeks, I had been contacted by multiple coaches that were interested in me playing for them next year! I was contacted by over 30 coaches before making my commitment. Carey Crain was my recruiter and he did a great job helping get my name out to coaches! Thank you Carey and STUDENTathleteWorld for all you did for me and my family! As Alex's dad, I spent the last 18 months developing a website for Alex, and Alex and I constantly updated his profile, uploaded video to YouTube and sent e-mail communications to about 25 select schools and about 50 coaches at least twice a month. Our efforts were somewhat effective as many coaches knew about Alex and some coaches actually watched him play and work out. But no coach was offering him a spot on a team let alone any scholarship money. I met Louis Birch about one year ago. Since meeting him, I know he successfully placed two of Alex's best friends and teammates at colleges with baseball programs. I saw Louis again just over three weeks ago. And after learning what Louis could offer to promote Alex, I hired him. Within a few days he had Alex's SaW profile up and running and e-mailed the profile to at least 50 coaches with a strong recommendation to take a look at Alex. Within a few hours of e-mailing the profile, Louis received several substantive responses. All but one coach was genuinely interested in Alex and one coach, Jeremiah Robbins of Lewis-Clark State College (the #2 ranked NAIA team in the nation) in Idaho wrote three words to Louis: "I'll take him." After further e-mail correspondence, some additional video prepared by Louis after personally working Alex out, a couple of phone calls, and a campus visit, Alex received a substantial scholarship offer and signed a Letter of Intent to attend college and play baseball at Lewis-Clark State College! But not before Alex received a substantial scholarship offer from a Division 2 baseball program that he passed on. We are convinced that Louis Birch's efforts, contacts and outstanding reputation with many, many baseball coaches are the reasons that Alex was given serious consideration by several coaches, received two substantial scholarship offers in less than three weeks' time and got Alex a roster spot at Lewis-Clark State College with an athletic scholarship! Thank you Louis! [Note: Alex committed to Lewis-Clark State College]

We would recommend the SaW program to any athlete trying to be exposed to Colleges. Our representative, Carey Crain, did a tremendous job for us and worked really hard to get his name out to many Colleges. [Note: Jakob committed to Antelope Valley College]

Jakob Russell, Liberty High School (California)

I would not be where I am today without the help of my representative – Carey Crain – and the recruiting program at SaW. I've always been a good student and athlete, but I thought my chances of being recruited might have passed me by because I was ill my junior year and missed my entire baseball season. Fortunately, I had a great senior season, and my representative Coach Crain convinced me with that with a video I still could get some college help. I think he and I were equally as surprised and happy when my video went live. Within two days, I had 27 coaches calling me – many on the first day! In total, I had at least 36 schools reach out to me as a result of my video. I have found the perfect school for me academically and athletically, and I can't wait to start this year. I never even would have known about the school I chose without Coach Crain's assistance! [Note: Nolan committed toSan Diego Christian College]

Nolan Proffitt, Liberty High School (California)

Our representative Kennard Kapono was excellent! He walked us through the entire process with patience defining expectations, the process, and what to expect. He was always there for assistance and support. He went out of his way to update videos, contact colleges, and offer advice. It was an excellent experience! [Note: Isaac committed to Milwaukee School of Engineering]

We cannot thank Lou Birch and SaW for all the help he gave us during the recruiting process. He was knowledgeable, honest and was our son's biggest advocate. He was very open and realistic about different colleges and where our son would fit in from an athletic and academic standpoint. Lou was a great advisor when it came to selecting a college that provided the best athletic and academic fit for our son and helped him be awarded a very large scholarship offer that was unbelievable. STUDENTathleteWorld is the best. Thanks (California Rep) Louis Birch. I was basically going nowhere on my own. Once I contacted Louis and my parents agreed to sign up, I had an offer in 2 weeks, and just signed my National Letter of Intent. I am so stoked and will definitely be sending you guys some referrals. [Note: Sean committed to Lewis-Clark State University]

Thank you SaW for everything you've done for me! I couldn't have completed my dream of playing college basketball without you. My advisor, Richie Schueler, and the whole SaW program have helped me learn the insides of recruiting and have been informative since day 1. I'm so excited to be able to play ball in college and I credit the members of SaW and Richie for being so great and helping me achieve one of the greatest goals I have ever set for myself. [Note: Patrick committed to Birmingham-Southern College]

SaW was very effective. They definitely created the most opportunities; far more than Showcases, etc. Lou Birch did a great job of generating interest. Lou's list of contacts was very beneficial. Lou is always positive and does a great job of educating you on your options at D1, D2, D3, NAIA. He always pointed out opportunities at all levels. We would recommend SaW to all prospective athletes. [NOTE: Matt committed to the University of Montavello]

The SaW program was such a great experience for me. My recruiting advisor, Carey Crain was awesome! He helped me get the exposure I needed to find the right college that was the best fit for me. I know he spoke with multiple college coaches about me. He was there to help me every time I had questions. He was just a phone call away. Thanks to Carey, I will be attending Cuesta College this year. Having someone you can trust and turn to for help during the college process is so important. I would recommend the Saw program to anyone. [NOTE: Riley committed to Cuesta College]

SaW has been very supportive during my recruiting journey, actively emailing coaches and checking up with me often to make sure that my needs were taken care of. [NOTE: Aaron committed to UC-Riverside]
Aaron Harris, Trabuco Hills High School (California)

To keep it simple, moving up in the world is all about who you know and who can help you get to your goal. If you don't know any college coaches or don't know the recruiting process why not get help by someone that knows people in the college level and can help you achieve your goal? When I was going to through the process one of my coaches tried to talk me out of it but I'm glad he didn't because I got to experience college baseball and frankly it was none of anyone's business. [NOTE: Brian committed to San Diego City College]
Brian Rosensteel, Vista High School (California)

Lou was great in walking us through the recruiting process. He was always accessible and did a good job communicating with colleges that were athletically and academically appropriate

[NOTE: Nolan committed to Westmont College]
Scott Cannon, Father of Nolan Cannon, Vista Murrieta High School (California)

SaW was a great program for a kid like me who always wanted to play at the next level but didn't really know how to get there. The resources and connections they utilize are unmatched. Richie Schueler was my personal representative and he made me feel like I could trust him right away. He was very approachable and easy to talk to about any questions I had. I would definitely recommend Richie and this program to those who feel like they need guidance in order to get to the next level. [NOTE: Jeremy committed to El Camino College]

STUDENTathleteWorld can be described as the warming and calm light from a lighthouse guiding you and your family through unfamiliar waters to the safety and jubilation of your destination! Lou Birch is a man of incredible integrity and soul that treats the athletes as if they were his own family. In fact, Lou has become part of our family! [Note: Kevin committed to the University of San Francisco]
Jeffrey Sengara, Father of Kevin Sengara, Vancouver (Canada)

Thank you so much Louis Birch and STUDENTathleteWorld! There are no words that could express my appreciation. We are family now, and I feel so confident knowing you'll always be in my corner. [Note: Kevin committed to the University of San Francisco]
Kevin Sengara, Vancouver (Canada)

Thank you SaW and thank you Mr. Birch for everything you have done to help me fulfill my lifelong dream to play college baseball. As a potential Canadian Student Athlete, attempting to navigate the complex world of searching for a quality school and baseball program in the United States can be a daunting task. Louis Birch, our SaW Representative, was referred to us by another Canadian baseball player who was a part of the SaW program last year. Mr. Birch was amazing and did an amazing job for me and my family. He took the time to get to know me and understand my specific needs. He was always very supportive, encouraging, informative, and generous with his time. I felt that he worked tirelessly on my behalf with many potential schools in an effort to help me fulfill my dream of going to College and playing baseball. He followed through on everything he said he was going to do to help me reach my goal. Needless to say, Mr. Birch succeeded in making my dream a reality. Can't say enough good things about the SaW program and the service Mr. Birch provided. We will not hesitate recommending him to our Canadian baseball friends. [Note: Ethan committed to Northeastern

STUDENTathleteWorld played a key role for our son over the past six months. We can't say enough about our representative, Louis Birch, and the support he gave us. He believed in our son 100% and went above and beyond our expectations to introduce him to a wide variety of U.S. colleges. The exposure was far beyond anything we could have made happen by ourselves and Lou is obviously very well respected in the field. He also helped create a video which was pivotal in helping our son attract the attention of interested colleges. Lou was extremely professional and he was always quick to respond to any questions we had. We never had to wait more than a few hours for an email or phone response. He was also very flexible; it took our family a while to figure out what the best fit would be for a college experience (ie. 2 yr. vs. 4 yr., location) and Lou was very patient and supportive of us as we worked through this. He never gave up – he persevered and was encouraging and enthusiastic through the whole process. Even after our son committed to an excellent college, Lou continued to keep in touch with us. He is a genuine relationship builder. Thanks so much for all your support!! [Note: Robbie committed to Lewis-Clark State College]
Ian Watson, Father of Robbie Watson, West Vancouver (Canada)

We heard about STUDENTathleteWorld through another baseball family in our Community that was working with Louis Birch. I am a Canadian always wanting to play baseball in the United States after high school. Lou was great and very professional. He was very helpful asking me all sorts of questions to find out the type of student-athlete I am, so that he could help me find the best fit for school and baseball program. I was excited to start being contacted by coaches from excellent schools that were interested in me coming to visit and meet them personally. On such a trip, I had 3 out of 4 schools offer me a place on their roster. From my experience with Lou Birch and STUDENTathleteWorld, I would highly recommend others to work with him. He is a pleasure to work with, very well known and professional. If we had a question, or a concern he was always quick to respond with the answer. Once I committed to my college, he seemed as excited for me as I was. [Note: Josh committed to The Master's College]

COLORADO

Thank you, Louis, for representing me. I had the opportunity to hear from several schools who may not have heard of me thanks to STUDENTathleteWorld. The video that you did for me highlighted what I love to do!! Thank you!! [NOTE: Austin committed to Ellsworth Community College]

Lou Birch is the real deal. Without his efforts my son Austen doesn't find Hamline University. Lou brought a number of schools to the table that our family had not even considered. Lou followed up with coach after coach and he kept us in loop every step of the way. Most importantly, Lou told us what we needed to know not what we wanted to hear. Lou was always prompt returning our calls and still is to this day. Lou brings a genuine excitement to the process because he loves what he does and it shows in his efforts. We publicly endorse Lou and STUDENTathleteWorld every chance we get and we would like to thank Lou for everything he has done and continues to do. Here's to a lifelong friend. [Note: Austen committed to Hamline University]

I thought the program as a whole was awesome. My representative, Louis Birch did a great job of getting me opportunities with colleges that I never thought I would have. I got the chance to talk with many coaches that I would not have talked to without your help. I would definitely recommend this program to many other athletes. We wouldn't have found Bethel had it not been for STUDENTathleteWorld. It's a fantastic school with an excellent baseball program. Lou was instrumental in locating this school, contacting the coach and took the time to call him and have an in-depth conversation with him after we had expressed interest in pursuing the opportunity. This wouldn't have happened without Lou. [NOTE: Brandon committed to Bethel University]
Brian French, Father of Brandon French, Douglas County High School (Colorado)

We worked closely with Lou through the process and found his work ethic and knowledge of the process invaluable and unparalleled by any similar organization. Without Lou my son would not have received the athletic opportunity, and more important the academic opportunity, that he now possesses. Thank you. Our son Matt committed to Yale to play baseball and it simply would not have been possible without our SaW advisor, Lou Birch. We are thankful to Lou Birch for his guidance throughout the recruiting process and his commitment to sending Matt's profile to coaches around the country. Matt had strong academics and has achieved success on the mound, but he was not on Yale's radar until Lou sent his profile. Our goal was for Matt to be able to play the game he loves at the best academic school possible…we never dreamed it would be Yale! Lou was on the ball! It is clear that he has developed a reputation with coaches around the county who trust him. As I parent, I am grateful for the way he professionally guided us through this process. We highly recommend Lou to every student-athlete we know who dreams of playing at the next level. We are so grateful and excited for the next chapter! [NOTE: Matt committed

It was a great jump start into the process. The schools who expressed interest were a great fit for my son Will. Lou Birch was extremely responsive and knowledgeable while navigating us through this journey and from the time we began to the time we committed the process went much faster and smoother than any of us could imagine. STUDENTathleteWorld without a doubt was the best investment for me and my family. Without it I wouldn't be where I am today as far as colleges and recruiting goes. It was beneficial beyond compare and I would recommend it to every aspiring college athlete. My representative maintained a very personal relationship with me and my family and was always involved with my recruiting process and always in talks with other coaches, which was extremely pivotal in things turning out the way they did. I cannot thank you enough for what you have done for me and helping me achieve my dreams. It feels great knowing that all my hard work has paid off. I owe my life to you guys. Thank you again, so much. [NOTE: Devin committed to Saint Mary's College]

CONNECTICUT

SaW was an invaluable service to us. Although we did not receive athletic scholarship monies, the visibility provided to the schools on Zach and OUR visibility to schools we had never considered was by far worth the investment. Steve was always close by with reminders and insightful information that made us better parents during school visits with relevant questions, how to behave, what to expect, etc. He was also a trusted advisor to Zach and coached him through how to handle calls from coaches, when to send a note, etc. Certainly lots of life lessons learned and created a lot of confidence we had not seen in Zach. He was well prepared as to when to be coy, when to be assertive, and when to be aggressive. By far one lesson we learned as parents which came from the program was how important the relationship is that your child builds with the coach early on. The coaches become their mentors and trusted advisors so that relationship building was very important to Zach when making his final decision on school. Zach's tapes were sent to many schools and we never could have done that part alone. That coupled with the excellent, relevant information spoon fed to us along the way made this program well worth the investment. In writing this note, I asked Zach about the experience and he just raved about how helpful it was to him and allowing him to feel like he owned the process and was informed with a trusted friend on his side. [NOTE: Zach committed to Salisbury University]

Thanks again for your email and for your helpful advice. We fully appreciate that you are trying to get the best offer for Jack, and are grateful for that. You've been a magnificent guide for us throughout this process. You helped open doors we never thought possible when we sat down last year. I believe that if we hadn't pursued a collegiate football experience Bowdoin would be a much larger reach for Jack. The result, as far as the Whiting's are concerned, is spectacular. I was skeptical of 'another sports marketing company' when I met the STUDENTathleteWorld staff. I quickly had my mind changed when I was able to view all the tools available. Then the first profile was sent of Adam to over 1,500 schools and literally within 45 minutes we had 14 schools contacting us to schedule campus visits. No way could we have ever done that on our own! As they continued to send out the profile coaches contacted them with needs and they forwarded to us for review. I cannot say thank you enough for the assistance they provided. The online webinars are an added bonus and very informative. [Note: Adam committed to Maryville College]

STUDENTathleteWorld helped me an immense amount and was imperative to my success in my recruitment process. They helped let me know when to expect, or not expect coaches to contact me; which coaches to contact; knew what to say to the coaches, and how to follow up effectively. They helped let coaches know who I was and how interested I was. [Note: Matt committed to Dartmouth College]

INDIANA

STUDENTathleteWorld was a great experience to me. Getting my name out there to coaches at colleges and universities that I otherwise would have never thought of contacting helped me a lot. In the end, I chose a college that was close to home and fit my needs. Dustin Glant [Indiana Representative] was a huge help, even directly got my info to the college I will be attending. If one of my friends was interested in playing at the next level, I would definitely introduce them to this organization. [Note: Braxton committed to Anderson University]

I just wanted to take a minute to let you know personally how excited we are to be working with you. I think you guys are a top notch organization. Your staff does an excellent job and your passion comes through as well as the knowledge of the recruiting process. It is so nice to work with someone who has 'been there, done that' rather than just a typical salesperson who is trying to make a sale off of us. We try to promote your organization as much as we can to others. Thanks. [Note: Justin committed to Saint Joseph's College]

Joining STUDENTathleteWorld and working with Richie Schueler proved instrumental in jump starting my recruiting journey. The college process can be a very confusing time but Richie was always available to answer any of my questions and to provide advice to help me sort through my options. I can't thank you guys enough for all the hard work you've done on my behalf. It's hard to imagine where I would be right now if I hadn't joined SaW and started working with you. I don't feel I would be playing college baseball without the help from everyone at STUDENTathleteWorld. The program really works! It opened up some awesome opportunities that may not have happened without your structure and guidance. Coach Glant [Indiana Rep] has been a great help mentoring me through each step of this process. He has been very informative explaining the recruiting process and helping me take the right steps which ultimately will help me make the right decisions. The program gave me the confidence and resources I needed to effectively communicate and navigate through my entire selection process. [Note: Seth committed to Dominican University]

My folks and I want to thank you for your services, as it was extremely helpful in my search, both in making the decision and with getting a golf scholarship. We appreciate how you quickly get back to us anytime we had a need. I just signed the NLI. I was contacted by over 20 schools, was accepted to all that I applied to and Saint Joseph was the overall best match. Your guidance and support materials alone were well worth the fees. Thanks for all your help! Kyle is very excited about the opportunities he has coming up. We had so many college contacts, I lost count. Your service was very powerful and helpful in getting Kyle some really good looks. Kyle has grown to respect and look up to you [Indiana Representative Dustin Glant] and the advice/instructions you have given him. I hope you stay in touch, I feel we have a relationship greater than just business associates. Feel free to stop by and say hi anytime, maybe we can go to one of Kyle's games together sometime in the next four years. Thanks again, you have been a great help and friend. [Note: Kyle committed to Cornerstone University]
Jeff Marburger, Father of Kyle Marburger, Peru High School (Indiana)

I was blown away by how thorough and concise the STUDENTathleteWorld process is. The biggest reason a company like this is so appealing to me is that nothing like this was available to me when I was being recruited! I was a top area baseball player in high school, but did not get many looks from colleges I felt I belonged at. I did not have anyone to tell me that I was the one who was supposed to be contacting coaches and I was relying too much on getting letters in the mail or phone calls in the evening. I ended up walking on at a low-level division one school where I toiled away at the end of the bench, essentially wasting two years of eligibility, before I transferred to a division two school and finished my career as a full time starter and participant in the NCAA tourney. I think my own story is evidence enough of how important a service such as yours can really be. It's hard not to daydream about what might have been if I had some more guidance through a process I knew nothing about.
Joe Mack, Coach, Roncalli High School (Indiana)

Dustin Glant and SaW were outstanding in communicating and instruction. He was a true catalyst in receiving this opportunity at Franklin and playing for Coach Marshall. [Note: Jackson committed to Franklin College]

Thanks for all the help!! STUDENTathleteWorld first off helped me get my name out to all the colleges in the country. Having you tell me to take all the visits possible really helped me know what I was looking for. They also showed you what information to send the college coaches and how to say it. They really will just put you in the best possibly area to achieve your dream. [Note: Derek committed to Elmhurst College]

INTERNATIONAL

I thank SaW from the bottom of my heart for being a part of my quest for college education. Being a student-athlete, one needs appropriate guidance to understand the intricacies of the procedures and the roads that lead to the right people who can appreciate your potential and give you a chance to prove yourself. SaW is the correct guiding light for the athletes who wish to approach the harbor safely and anchor correctly. Thanks a ton Richie! [Note: Manish committed to Pierce College]

The honest evaluations and insight on the players make this company unique. Every parent, player, and recruiter should value the honesty given by the STUDENTathleteWorld team. If you are good enough the big time will find you, but the challenge is to make the big time where you are and they can do that for all their clients.

MARYLAND

STUDENTathleteWorld has helped me achieve my dreams of running for an NCAA Division 1 school. Although the journey was quite lengthy and difficult especially as an international student, SaW put in hard work and were dedicated to help me with my goal. I thank God for sending SaW to me. I especially want to thank my representative, Richie Schueler, for personally emailing colleges on my behalf and following up with them. He really did an outstanding job and I couldn't have asked for better. He put in the extra effort to make sure my goals were reached. I highly recommend SaW to anyone who wants to do a sport in college. [Note: Mary committed to the University of Maryland Eastern Shore]

After reviewing several recruitment services we spoke with the folks at STUDENTathleteWorld and registered our son. Within a few days of their first email to college coaches which contained Robbie's information, we started receiving emails from Colleges from as far away as San Diego and Boston, and as close as the next State to us. The staff have answered every question that we have had, and our personal rep is available to us all of the time via, email, Facebook, and Twitter. We simply could not have asked for a more friendly bunch of people with which to work, and they have produced tangible results in actual college offers for our son. We highly recommend SAW to anyone looking to increase their child's exposure to schools all over the country.

NEW JERSEY

I was not a big fan of recruiting firms as my daughter was entering this process after her freshman year in HS. We were inundated with emails and calls from groups that wanted a lot of money to represent our daughter and not sure what we were really going to get for it. Mark McGarry was different, he was local in Jersey and he seemed genuinely interested in Rachel. And the rates for services were so much more reasonable than anyone we had spoken with previously. It was a very good investment for us. Rachel signed a national letter of intent and will be playing Division 2 golf at SNHU and Mark was so helpful in getting us through this process. We had a call scheduled every month to discuss progress and next steps, and could reach out via phone or email if we needed anything in-between calls. Mark supplied us with all of the documents, helpful hints, etc. that we would need as we went through this process. He gave us questions to ask coaches, players, things to look for as you researched schools and many other very helpful documents. When Rachel had her first phone call scheduled with a Coach, Mark did a role playing session with her that really prepared her for that call. And the call went very well. When we started going on official visits, he gave us all the info we needed and made sure he spoke to us prior to the first visit so we felt completely prepared and we were. He also helped us to make our video, updated the site for us anytime there was a change in information or stats and helped us narrow down our search and email blasts to Coaches. We got emails from at least 10 or more coaches and the SNHU (where she will be playing) found her through Mark as well. Overall it was a great investment and a very valuable tool as we went through what was a very overwhelming process at times. Mark is personable and knows his stuff and gave us really good advice and guidance throughout the process. I would recommend Mark McGarry to any family that is about to enter the college recruiting process. [NOTE: Rachel committed to Southern New Hampshire University]

SaW was an outstanding and resourceful tool. My Representative, Joe Mazza, was amazing. I would consider him family to me. He was amazing with me every step of the way; calling coaches, coming to my games, and giving me advice. Mr. Mazza is an incredible person that my family and I were lucky to meet. [NOTE: Gianni committed to Rutgers University]

Your advice, direction, and connections were invaluable in getting me to a Division 1 school. I felt better prepared to speak to coaches and was able to filter through those colleges that were seriously interested and those that were not. Mr. Mazza and Mr. Langan were always on my side and I felt very at ease in dealing with them. They helped me stay focused & organized throughout the process and offered great advice. I want to thank you for all your help with the recruiting process. We have been on the recruiting road for a very long time and we needed help in getting the deal done. The bottom line is you delivered results. Your guidance and assistance through the process is immeasurable. After posting my son's profile and video we began getting immediate results. Numerous colleges were reaching out. With your help and guidance it made things that much easier as well as the way you handled it was very professional. The college match system allowed us to select schools by combining athletics, academics and geography. Most importantly you opened doors to recruiting opportunities we just would not have had. Helping with his video was clearly instrumental in the recruiting process. Most impressively you provided the services you committed to and were always responsive. As a result my son had the opportunity to select the college he would like to attend. I would highly recommend you and your service to anyone who is looking to ease the pain of being recruited. We could have never completed this without your continued help. [Note: Matthew committed to West Virginia]

Our representative was instrumental in speaking to coaches and getting the coaches at St. Peter's (and other schools) to see Stephen pitch. He even set up mini showcases for Stephen and other players during the off season. Stephen didn't want to go to school too far away from home and He kept to Stephen's wishes about locations of schools. Stephen would not be committed to Saint Peter's without STUDENTathleteWorld. The STUDENTathleteWorld program was very useful. It saved us a ton of time using the college search tool to contact coaches. The templates, information, and video information provided by the service really simplified the process. We had several compliments on the web site and of Jordan's video….And more importantly, having a representative such as yourself to answer questions and offer suggestions is a great attribute to the program. Thanks you very much for all your help with the recruiting process! To quote my wife your fee was the best money I ever spent. And I agree! Great job! As you know, we began the recruiting process very late by most standards. I did not know where to start or how to begin the recruiting process so I turned to you and STUDENTathleteWorld. The bottom line is you delivered results. Your guidance and assistance through the process is immeasurable. After posting my son's profile and video we began getting immediate results. Numerous colleges were reaching out. With your help and guidance, we used college match to select colleges that my son may be interested in and began reaching out to the coaches. The college match system allowed us to select schools by combining athletics, academics and geography. Most importantly you opened doors to recruiting opportunities we just would not have had. You guided us through the process. With your guidance we were able to produce a video which allowed coaches to evaluate my son's skills which exponentially increased his opportunities. This video was clearly instrumental in the recruiting process. Most impressively you provided the services you committed to and were always responsive. As a result my son has the opportunity to select the college he would like to attend. [NOTE: Robert committed to Drew University]

Words cannot describe how much your team has helped me. Louis was a very professional representative that helped me every step of the way with thoughtful advice and constant college contacts. The website itself was also very informative and easy to access. I haven't made my high school team since freshman year and the fact is I would not be playing college ball next year had it not been for Louis and STUDENTathleteWorld. I thank the entire team and their steadfast dedication for taking me serious as a ballplayer and helping me continue pursuing my dreams. [NOTE: Michael committed to Hilbert College]

We were blind coming into this just like so many other parents are but Louis Birch was amazing he said just sit back and enjoy the ride and the calls started coming. Any questions we had were just a phone call away you just don't get that type of service anymore. SaW, the Mora Family can't thank you enough for what you did for us. We will continue to sell your service here in Albuquerque because it works and my daughter is a proven fact that it does. God bless. [Note: Gabriela committed to Thomas University]
Ana and James Mora, Parents of Gabriela Mora, St. Pius X High School (New Mexico)

What an experience! I would recommend SaW to everyone seeking to play their sport at the next level. My rep, Lou was great to work with. He explained the recruiting process and what to expect. He was always there to answer questions whenever I needed him. He was very thorough and a true professional. Within days of completing my profile, the contacts from coaches began. There is no way I could have personally reached out to all the Colleges and Universities Lou did. I truly believe without the help of Lou and everyone at SaW, I would not be going to college on a scholarship. [Note: Monee committed to Alfred University]
Monee Barela, St. Pius X High School (New Mexico)

I can't express to you how much Mo, her mom and I appreciate all that you have done. We could not have done it without you. She would definitely not be in the position of going to Alfred University without all the hard, persistent and valuable work you did on her behalf. [Note: Monee committed to Alfred University]

My representative was Tony Zostant and I had a very good personal relationship. Everything he did was great and you guys did too. I never could have done any of that on my own. You coached me through my college decision and made it so much easier. Everything was perfect and I can't thank you enough for it. [Note: Nick committed to Niagara University]
Nick Rogers, Maine Endwell High School (New York)

I could never imagine a better person to help me find a school where I can use my athletic talents. I enjoyed having your help and taking your advice. Thanks you so much! [Note: Tim committed to Muskingum University]
Tim Taft, Owego Free Academy (New York)

I worked with Mr. Zostant and STUDENTathleteWorld this year to help me with my recruiting process. He helped me greatly by sending out my profile to coaches, calling them to find out information, and telling them my abilities as a player. He was always very nice asking about not only my sport, but school, extra-curriculars, family vacations, and more. I highly recommend him to anyone needing help with their recruiting process. [Note: Michaela committed to the University of Scranton]
Michaela Farrell, Seton Catholic Central High School (New York)

Thanks Richie Schueler for all the help with this process. Working with STUDENTathleteWorld allowed us to focus our energies and resources to best meet our needs. When you are dealing with the significance of such decisions in your child's future, high-caliber programs, deadlines, and all that comes with this territory, it was great to look to leaders to navigate successfully. As a parent, I had great peace of mind. Student-athlete success was very important to us when we began planning with our son, Christopher, to meet his goals and future success. Competing in college sports provides lifelong advantages and we wanted to approach this with the best 'toolkit' and resources available - STUDENTathleteWorld is that. SaW was our go-to experts. They have the knowledge, the network, relationships within athletics as well as academics, their own experiences as former athletes, and not to mention, all the 'bells and whistles' of technology to connect with the decision-makers. We highly recommend SaW. Along with focusing on the 'best fit' in a field of study, working with SaW is the next most important step you should be taking. [Note: Chris committed to Delaware Valley College]
Mary Priller, Mother of Chris Longyhore, Utica College (New York)

My experience with STUDENTathleteWorld has been one that I never thought it would be. By that, I mean all the help they have given me and the support to find a school that best fit me was amazing. If it wasn't for Richie and all his help as well, I would have never been started on this program. I highly recommend this to athletes that are looking to get picked up by a school of their interest. [Note: Chris committed to Delaware Valley College]
Chris Longyhore, Utica College (New York)

Michelle is looking forward to her next chapter in Hockey! This all would not have been possible with out your help. From our first meeting you were and have been very up front with what need to be done and how to get it all done. You were great in marketing Michelle to colleges, sending countless e-mails and phone calls. When things were not looking so good for Michelle to get an offer you took control and ran with it! Ending up with 3 offers to play! I also very much appreciated your ear when I would call you and voice my concerns for Michelle, your unending enthusiasm kept me going. Tony, Thank very much for all of your help. Because of your efforts Michelle will continue to play hockey at a higher level. I will miss our conversions and I would highly recommend you to anyone. We wanted to thank the SAW Representative Mr. Tony Zostant for his commitment and dedication through this process. Tony is an asset to your organization. He is a well standing individual that I would recommend to anyone. He was very instrumental in explaining the College recruiting process and how it works. His D1 level coaching past is a testament to your organization. Also, SaW has an excellent database and profile website. [Note: JT committed to Syracuse University] Joe and Courtney Stirpe, Parents of JT Stirpe, Vestal Central High School (New York)

Mr. Zostant helped me in many ways throughout the recruiting process including contacting coaches and discovering more schools for me. He taught me a lot about recruiting and being recruited, but was especially helpful in teaching me how to communicate and teaching me what to say to college coaches in phone calls and in e-mails. STUDENTathleteWorld was a huge help with our recruiting process for our son. Their knowledge of the college recruiting ins and outs would be a huge benefit to anyone with a son or daughter wanting to play college sports.
Tim Zaruba, Father of Trevor Zaruba, Cardinal Gibbons High School (North Carolina)

My representative Robert Jackson was awesome with communicating and keeping us up to date on colleges. Thank you for the assistance with the recruiting process which brought about clarity in order to move forward. We could not have done it without you! The organization does an excellent job advising for the STUDENTathletes which brought about several colleges we had not made contact with before. Robert was very knowledgeable regarding the process and helping us to determine what we were looking for in the colleges and how to measure the information to make a decision. Sarah Packard, Mother of Phillip Packard, Fike High School (North Carolina)

STUDENTathleteWorld was extremely tenacious in their efforts to help me and my son with his recruiting efforts. They are very personable, helpful, supportive, and most importantly, insightful on the athletic recruiting process. They provide a good service and value for the end product. I would recommend them highly to others. [Note: Kevin committed to West Virginia Wesleyan College]

Negotiations with over 20 Universities, 8 solid offers, and eventually signing on Feb 6. That's what Tim Ryerson and STUDENTathleteWorld provided our athlete with in just 4 months of using his services. Two years with the so-called leaders in recruiting got us a beautiful highlight film but NO FRUIT. The choice for my next son is already made. Just sayin'! Thank you for doing it right Tim! [NOTE: Hunter committed to Liberty University]
Bob Winstead, Father of Hunter Winstead, Heritage High School (North Carolina)

Thank you Tim Ryerson and STUDENTathleteWorld! I had been recruited locally since the 9th grade, but hadn't received any contractual offers. Once we partnered with SaW my senior year, I immediately received invitations for official visits and scholarship offers from around the United States. SaW introduced me to outstanding Universities that I wasn't aware even existed. I was blessed to commit on the national signing day this year.[NOTE: Hunter committed to Liberty University]
Hunter Winstead, Heritage High School (North Carolina)

I want to thank you for your service, Lauren received a ton of interest from many schools across the country. Two divison I schools called to offer her full athletic scholarships. She had over 15 division II schools that were very serious and there were also many NAIA and Division III schools that were very interested ranging from in Florida to California. Your service was very well worth the investment and there were many opportunities made available to Lauren. I would highly recommend your service to any kid with a desire to play at the college level. I found the exposure great and I will seek your services when my son a rising sophomore starts looking at colleges in the near future. Thanks again.

Tim was instrumental in guiding us through the recruiting process. He helped us discern between "real" interest and blanket emails and camp letters. He was invaluable in helping us realize our son could get recruited, get an almost full-ride at a D2 school, all on Academic scholarships! I recommend him highly, especially if you are a Homeschooler, or attend a private school with not much visibility. [NOTE: William committed to Barton College]

Will Cunningham, Father of William Cunningham, Home School (North Carolina)

Richie Schueler and SaW were a huge help to me and my family in the process of choosing a college. Shortly after I signed up with SaW started receiving a lot of e-mails from coaches from all over the country and it was very overwhelming (although, it was a good thing since I wasn't sure what I wanted out of a college). Richie sat down with my mom and me and discussed all of the things that different levels of colleges could offer me and helped me decide what I had the best chance of being successful in. He asked me different things like how close to home I wanted to be, how big of a school I wanted, if I wanted a public university or a private university, and he used all of these things to choose which schools to send my information out too. With this he led me to a small private NAIA school in South Dakota that will be absolutely perfect for my level of play as well as my academic interests. I would recommend SaW to any athlete who is interested in taking their career to the next level; it's a great program to get your information in front of all different coaches and to ease the struggle of choosing the best college for you. [Note: Christine committed to Dakota Wesleyan University]
Christine Patterson, Home School (North Carolina)

Without STUDENTathleteWorld I would have never had the opportunity to play college football. I met Tim in January of my senior year, after my senior football season was over. I didn't think there was any chance I could still get recruited, but with STUDENTathleteWorld, that was not the case. I was contacted by several different schools and three gave me offers. Tim helped me walk through the process in order to get the best offer possible. [NOTE: John committed to Earlham College]

We appreciate the effort the SAW made on Owen's behalf in getting his information out to the schools. The STUDENTathleteWorld staff is extremely passionate about their work, really care about the athletes they counsel and represent and have the knowledge, the connections, and the creative mind to bring the best arrangement for the student-athlete. They provides a number of free articles, suggestions, and facts that if followed can help any family learn more about the recruiting process. I certainly believe STUDENTathleteWorld to be one of the leaders in this field.
Rodney Threat, Head Softball Coach, Lady Blues Fastpitch Softball (North Carolina)

Tim really helped us fully understand the overall picture of the recruiting process. He explained the different aspects of sports recruiting with clarity and accuracy. This knowledge helped us better understand how college recruiting really took place. Without his help, we would have not known the questions to ask the coaches or the admission officers. Jillian committed this week. Thanks so much for all of your help. We started keeping a log of all of the contacts that were made, but it got very overwhelming. There were so many! All because of you! Thank you so much, again! I will let anyone know that I come in contact with. I have several parents here though that have followed Jillian's 'journey' and have some promising athletes of their own. I will recommend highly! [NOTE: Jillian committed to Lenoir Rhyne University]

STUDENTathleteWorld did a great job representing me. Because I limited my choices to close to home, major in nursing and play libero in volleyball (which hardly ever gets scholarshipped), I didn't have a whole lot of options. SaW worked hard in the beginning to get my video done and uploaded and my information was online very quickly. My mom emailed Tim with any questions that we had and he always got right back to her. We didn't understand the recruiting process until we got involved with SaW. I don't think I would have had the exposure needed to get the attention that I did. I was contacted by over 100 colleges! Thank you STUDENTathleteWorld and Tim Ryerson! [NOTE: Jillian committed to Lenoir-Rhyne University]
Jillian Born, Laney High School (North Carolina)

This program was great very easy to work with and they sent my name out everywhere. I am ending with going to a great school so this program was very effective for my sports career. Thank you for everything you did and for all of your help in making this become a reality! [Note: Erin committed to Southern Wesleyan University]
Erin Exline, Laney High School (North Carolina)

Your program provided exactly what you said it would- it educated us on the recruiting process, prepared John to be recruited by way of a profile and video and then you put John out there countrywide where he got a lot of exposure and contact. He was able to get a large sample of different schools in various areas of the country which ultimately formed his preferences on the type of school he wanted to attend. The information you sent out monthly by way of newsletters and videos were very helpful and on target. We have been very pleased with your program and feel it helped us greatly. Thanks for everything. [Note: John committed to Lenoir-Rhyne University]
Sherri Beaver, Mother of John Beaver, Myers Park High School (North Carolina)

Richie Schueler and SaW were a huge help to me. From explaining all the different things that come with being recruited and playing at the next level to getting me the exposure to college coaches throughout the country. As the emails and letters came Richie continued his support throughout the entire process. The best thing was that there was an open line of communication to him which was so helpful. I would recommend anyone trying to play a sport at the next level use SaW. Thanks Richie! [Note: Jourdan committed to St. Andrews University]

John Hickey, Father of Michael Hickey, New Hanover High School (North Carolina)

Working with STUDENTathleteWorld was good for me, I joined when I was a freshman and they kept in contact through all four years of high school and provided me with new information on colleges interested in me. They open doors to many more places all around and wherever would be a fit for you. [Note: Dakota committed to East Carolina University]

I committed today. Thanks for help making it a reality! I really appreciate the service you provided. In fact I just received a phone call last week from a college in Pennsylvania because of the recent profile distributions that just went out. I'm glad we worked with you because like you said, there are hundreds of programs out there that the majority of people don't know about. There's no way we would have had the success we had in getting recruited without your knowledge and services. Again, thanks!!! [Note: Dalton committed to Averett University]

My wife and I entered the world of college recruiting believing my son's talents alone were enough to get him a scholarship to a great school. We quickly learned that to do the best for our son we needed help from someone who knew how to navigate through the maze and traps of recruiting. We credit STUDENTathleteWorld and the passion for what they do, care for their clients and their knowledge of the recruiting process, for helping us get our son a scholarship to play college baseball. Their ability to break the process into simple steps made it more enjoyable and they were always there to answer questions and provide guidance and support. They remain a great support for us today and we recommend STUDENTathleteWorld to anyone who is serious about ensuring their child has the best opportunity to play college athletics! I would encourage any family to get help with this process as early as 9th grade. This will give you the best benefit of the services STUDENTathleteWorld provides. I thought it was a great service especially for never going through the process before. You feel like a dear in the headlights and it so nice to be able to talk to someone that knows exactly how the process works. I think anything to help narrow the search somehow is helpful as decision start getting closer especially. [NOTE: Alex committed to Wofford College]

STUDENTathleteWorld is a great program. Our son was contacted by schools that we would have never thought to reach out to. We visited a few of those schools and really liked them. Our son received offers from 3 of them! Tim Ryerson worked closely with us and was a tremendous help in getting our son's profile and video in the hands of the correct people. Within a month's time our son had 7 offers to play baseball in Div. I, II, III and NAIA. I would recommend this program to anyone. STUDENTathleteWorld and Coach Schueler were always responsive to our needs. They communicated in an extremely timely fashion, whether by phone, email, or text. The old adage of 'if you're good, they'll find you' may be true for the truly elite player, but doesn't hold for everyone. My recruitment was markedly influenced by SaW. [Note: Trey committed to the Air Force Academy]
Trey Smith, Delphos Jefferson High School (Ohio)

My experience with SaW was very satisfying. Richie Schueler was very helpful and he always kept in touch and making sure I got things done. He also checked up on me about my life apart from basketball which shows he honestly cares about the athletes and their families. He made sure my profile was sent to schools and made sure I went to a school that was a good fit for me succeed. I thank Mr. Schueler for everything he's done. My SaW representative Jamie Kachmarik was the reason I actually chose Bluffton. I was all set to commit to another college, when Jamie emailed my updated video of my senior season to the coaches and let them know I would playing in the area and I was someone they needed to look at. Just from that contact, the Assistant Coach came to watch my sectional tournament game and from there they contacted me about a visit. I ended up loving the campus and what they had to offer. I am very excited to be able continue playing basketball and if it wasn't for my SaW Representative I would not be heading off to Bluffton. Thank you for all SaW did! The STUDENTathleteWorld program has been very effective for me and I would not have had my top two choices without. I had a lot of great colleges on my college contact form because of your services. My Rep, Richie, was always available to take calls and e-mails. He wrote awesome e-mails to coaches and we have had a great relationship. This program has had tremendous value to me and I would recommend it to anyone trying to go to the next level. Thank you very much. [NOTE: Connor committed to the University of Mount Union]

Connor Jansen, Turpin High School (Ohio)

We are all very excited about Connor's decision!! I just wanted to say thank you for all you have done to guide us through the recruiting process. As you know from the beginning, I was skeptical after our first experience with Connors brother. But as you promised, you proved me wrong! I think your program is excellent and would definitely recommend it and you to others. I really liked how it was primarily directed towards Connor, while keeping the parents in the loop, so as to keep everyone on the same page. I think Connor has matured and developed skills for communicating with adults that he will take forward to college and life in general. Thanks again for all your help!! OREGON

The STUDENTathleteWorld program exposed me to the intense process of sports recruiting but in a way that was manageable and easy to follow through with. Without it I would have never had the opportunity to seriously consider colleges across the country that were very interested in me. With the program I was able to communicate with [Oregon Rep Nicholas Heffernan] the minute I had a question and things got done fast because of that. He also had his best interest in me and my college career and was very supportive.
STUDENTathleteWorld created so many more options for me than I ever thought to be possible. I am confident in my choice for college next year because I was able to evaluate all of my options. Thank you so much for all that you have done for me. [NOTE: Sophia committed to the University of San Diego]
Sophia Raglione, Corbett High School (Oregon)

The STUDENTathleteWorld program has helped me tremendously with achieving my dream of playing competitive college soccer. My representative, Nicolas Heffernan, made this dream possible. He knows my talents as a soccer player better than I do, and has made me feel confident. His encouragement and amazing coaching skills helped me get to where I am today. I cannot thank STUDENTathleteWorld enough for creating great opportunities for me and helping me achieve my goals and dreams as a soccer player. My experience with STUDENTathleteWorld and [Portland Representative] Nicholas Heffernan has gone beyond expectations as he has delivered on all the services he originally discussed and more. Nicholas works so well with Ryan – pushing him to follow through on tasks and follow-up with college coaches. His responsiveness to requests and availability have been admirable in his efforts to help Ryan achieve optimal interest from college coaches.

When I began my journey into the college recruiting process it was very confusing. I knew that wanted to play college baseball and I knew that I was good enough to do so but, I did not know how to go about presenting myself to college programs. It seemed that everyone I knew had advice. This advice was all over the place and some of it was contradictory. I didn't know which letters from colleges were form letters and which were genuine contacts showing interest in me as a player. I had no clue which camps to attend and which were not worth my time or money. I was overwhelmed by the whole process. After my parents and I spoke with Tom Davis, I decided to join STUDENTathleteWorld and, looking back now, it was a great decision. Tom Davis, who was my representative, really helped me to understand what I needed to do to be considered a recruit for college programs. At our first STUDENTathleteWorld meeting Tom was honest with me about where he saw me fitting in as a college athlete and at what level. He also discussed some of the ways that he could help me find the right fit with a college program. Tom also listened to me and understood what I was looking for as an athlete and in a college. Throughout the process Tom always held me accountable, making sure that I kept updating my STUDENTathleteWorld page. He stressed to me that without proper communication with college coaches, my dream to play baseball may not become a reality. Tom Davis actively helped me with this and he always followed up on every single communication that I had with coaches himself. Tom taught me that it is all about putting myself out there and selling myself. Tom put me in touch with coaches that were looking for pitchers and promoted me to them. He also initiated contact with coaches from a list of schools that I provided to him. These were colleges that I thought I might like to attend for academic reasons. Tom suggested camps and showcases that were appropriate and advised me on which invites to accept that I was receiving directly. One of the best things that Tom did for me happened near the end of the recruiting process. After I had received a good number of offers I was ready to decide which school that I wanted to attend and which offer I would accept. After talking with my parents and eliminating all but two schools. I decided to try to negotiate a better offer from the school that I had determined was my number one choice. After talking to Tom about this he immediately contacted my number one school to promote me one last time, letting them know that I was very interested and would be committing shortly. I am happy to say that the school of my choice gave me a fantastic offer and I will be playing baseball for them next season. Tom Davis helped me achieve this and I can't thank him enough. I writing to officially thank you for all your guidance in helping Hannah (and her parents) learn the habits of the college athlete's recruiting season. Your material is second to none, kept us well informed, and encouraged us when we felt we were losing touch with reality. She has been offered and has accepted a full scholarship (tuition, room, board, and books). She had also received two other scholarship offers. Bless you and thank you for all you did to make this possible! [Note: Hannah committed to Eastern Illinois University]

TEXAS

STUDENTathleteWorld and Richie Schueler have been of great service for me in regards to helping me get to where I wanted to be. As hard as it is already to be seen by college coaches and being a military dependent Richie helped me, by pushing my name out to coaches and making it known that I can play and deserve to be looked at. Only 5% of the nation plays college basketball and thanks to Richie and the SaW team I will. I would love to thank Richie and STUDENTathleteWorld for the support and guidance on my journey. I've committed! STUDENTathleteWorld is a great program! Best decision I made this year, because without it I don't think I would be playing college basketball or have the chance to pay college at a cheaper price. It is definitely worth the investment. I am very appreciative of all STUDENTathleteWorld has done for me and my recruiting. They helped me get my name out there, and from then on my recruiting skyrocketed. In the process, I was able to find out what school was the right fit for me, and with the help of Richie I was able to understand how to talk with the coaches/get a feel if they were really interested in me. The school I have committed to makes me feel like I am part of the family. I am proud to be a Nichols College commit. [Note: Branden committed to Nichols College]

Richie Schueler and SaW are the main reasons why I am playing college basketball next year. Richie met with us and from the first meeting has been a constant support and guide to me in the college basketball recruitment process. Richie got me exposure to the college basketball world and especially to coaches. SaW also helped me to identify good trainers and get continued training at a higher level. As the emails and letters came Richie continued his support sorting through and making sense of it all and making sure that I'm taking the right steps in a timely manner. He was always available to me and my parents to discuss options and also concerns. I would recommend anyone trying to play a sport at the next level to use SaW. Thanks Richie! Just a little bit of first hand info on Tom Davis. He is a college athlete recruiter with STUDENTathleteWorld, and works very hard for our local athletes, getting them recruited to play college sports. Beth Cook and I worked very hard trying to get her recruited when graduating high school, with little success. And anyone that ever watched her play high school softball probably thought she would be recruited, at least to somewhere. Well, unfortunately, we have a few things stacked against us; we are in WV, we are in Moorefield, a lil ole town, and we are a single A high school. So our athletes are lucky to get any attention at all. This is where Tom comes in. He works very hard to get our WV kids collegiate attention. And to be completely honest, I was very hesitant at first; who has time for a pushy, expensive, just-trying-to-take-my-money recruiter, right? Well, let me tell you, after a few conversations with Tom, I realized that was not him at all. He is awesome to deal with and really likes to get to know his clients. He really is passionate about getting our kids recruited. He responds to messages almost immediately. He contacted many colleges putting Beth on their radar almost immediately after we gave him the green light. He calls/texts frequently checking on Beth's progress, and helps in any way we ask, but does not "aggravate" her. He really does do an awesome job, and I am so glad we gave him a shot. Beth has received more calls and emails of interested colleges in the past 3 months than over the past 3 years. Thank you Tom!!! [Note: Beth committed to Fairmont State University]

I just wanted to take a few moments to write a review so that anyone who was considering using STUDENTathleteWorld would have some real life experience to base their decision on. So, here goes... About 4 weeks ago I scrolled through Facebook, and came across a post by Tom Davis. I had seen it a few times, but never really paid attention to it. Instead of continuing to scroll, I actually stopped to read the post this time. Our son plays high school football, and we were coming up on the last few weeks of his high school season. We had been to camps over the summer, and not a single school had reached out to us about the opportunity for him to continue playing football at the collegiate level. I knew in my heart that he has the size, desire, and grades (4.0+ GPA) to continue playing the game he loves. After reading the post, I thought to myself, "What could it hurt to at least check it out?" I sent an e-mail that night, and had a response back the following morning. After speaking with Tom on the phone I was positive that he would be able to help us. We spoke a couple more times in the days following, and scheduled a visit for him to come to our home and meet with us. I can't tell you enough about how professional and courteous this man was to our family. We reached an agreement for SaW and Tom to represent our son, and created a profile on their website that evening before he left. Now don't get me wrong, this isn't a magical potion that you can buy that goes POOF and you have scholarship offers the next day. There is still work to be done on your (the customer's) end. I'm trying to be as open and honest about the entire situation that I can be, so I won't leave anything out. This way you won't go into it with unrealistic expectations. They equip you with the tools you need to get your student athlete noticed! They have connections all over the country and send your profile to those connections. On the website, under your personal profile there is a tab that links you to any D1, D2, D3, NAIA, or JUCO school in the entire country. From there it gives you the contact info to that school's head coach or recruiting coordinator. This is VITAL information for your student athlete to have! Long story short...Once they sent out our info we got an e-mail from a school that was happy with our son's film, and they wanted us to come for a campus tour and meet the coaching staff. We had our first official recruiting trip! It didn't stop there though. Over the next few days we sent out some e-mails to those coaches I was telling you about earlier. We now have over a DOZEN schools recruiting our son to play football! I couldn't believe it! Well, I could because I knew he had it in him, but I couldn't believe how quickly things had changed. So in conclusion, I have to give credit where credit is due. Tom Davis and SaW have made a dream become reality. With their assistance, our son is going to be able to play football at the collegiate level. Like I said earlier, I hope this post/review may help someone out there who was looking for that extra help. I HIGHLY recommend SaW, and I'm proud to be a part of their family! Thank you guys! SaW was a tremendous help to me in my recruiting process. I was the first in my family to play a collegiate sport, so I was not very familiar with the recruiting process and how to go about getting my name around. This is where the experienced SaW team stepped in and helped me. They taught me about the recruiting process, sent information about my academic & athletic accolades to many different colleges, and ultimately helped me achieve my dream of playing college basketball. Met Tom Davis right after my son's junior season. My son is very talented but undersized. We didn't have a clue how to approach the process of getting recruited. Tom was honest. Told us at this time my son was not a D1 prospect but will play college football. Honesty is refreshing. He told us it was going to be a lot of work on our part. He told my son, don't wrestle, gain 20lbs of muscle instead. From that day, my son lived for college football. I did the paperwork. Tom will be taking him on a visit in 2 days. He's there for anything. He's not my son's recruiting coordinator, he's our friend. I can't thank SAW enough. In 2 weeks we will be deciding on which scholarship to accept. I never thought we would be in this position. We are because of Tom.

The recruiting process through SaW was a great experience for me and my family. Working with Brad Clark meant I always had someone available to answer my questions. With SaW sending out my profile to over 10,000 schools for me, it took so much of the pressure off me and my family in making college contacts. I enjoyed the recruiting process, getting messages from all the colleges, and I truly want to thank Brad and SaW for being a part of my success. STUDENTathleteWorld does great work facilitating the athletic careers of the high school prospects! I am a big fan, supporter, and have enjoyed your thorough and realistic approach! This is a valuable service for any young talent looking for assistance and direction in the recruiting process. Yours is a profession where you can help guide, mature, and ready a young adult in life. I know my teammates and I in high school didn't have the presence of mind to know what we needed, hopefully you continue to reach those student-athletes!

STUDENTathleteWorld hits it right on the head when they say 'comparing recruiting in revenue sports at major NCAA DI programs to most programs at the low DI, DII, DIII, NAIA, and NJCAA levels is like comparing apples to deck furniture'. If you are a high level NCAA DI prospect you may not need the STUDENTathleteWorld program. If you are not, you do!
